Unit Price of Horizontal Cable Trays

Overview

Find top-quality cable tray horizontal for sale with customizable options. Compare verified suppliers, pricing, and MOQs.

Key Takeaways

Horizontal cable trays typically range from $0. 56 to over $50 per meter, depending on material, type, and order volume. Price Ranges by Material and TypeGalvanized Steel Trays: Standard hot-dip galvanized ladder trays generally cost $0.

56 to $5 per meter for bulk orders, with typical retail prices around $10–$30 per meter depending on size and finish. Stainless Steel Trays: Highly durable and corrosion-resistant, stainless steel trays are priced between $20 and $100 per meter, suitable for heavy-duty or industrial environments. Aluminum Trays: Lightweight and rust-resistant, aluminum trays range from $6 to $50 per meter, often used in outdoor or corrosive environments.

Plastic/

Fiberglass (FRP) Trays: These non-metallic trays cost $10 to $50 per meter, offering corrosion resistance and electrical insulation, though they may have lower load capacity.

Factors Affecting Unit Price

Order Quantity: Bulk orders significantly reduce unit cost, with discounts often applied at 500, 1,000, or 10,000 meters. Tray Type: Ladder trays are generally more economical for heavy cable loads, while solid-bottom or wire mesh trays may vary in price. Coatings and Finishes: Powder-coated, pre-galvanized, or HDG finishes increase durability and cost.

Certifications: CE, UL, or IEC certifications, as well as fireproof or flame-retardant ratings, can affect pricing. Customization: Custom sizes, shapes, or OEM/ODM options typically increase unit cost.

Cost-

Saving Tips

Buy in Bulk: Larger orders reduce per-meter cost. Select Appropriate Material: Choose steel for heavy loads, aluminum for corrosion resistance, and plastic for lightweight or non-conductive applications. Compare Suppliers: Manufacturers often offer better pricing and customization than traders or resellers.

In summary, the unit price for horizontal cable trays varies widely based on material, type, and order size, with standard steel trays starting as low as $0. 56 per meter for bulk purchases and specialized stainless steel or FRP trays reaching $50 or more per meter.
